Seeds And Oil

Scant Improvement Prices Harden Supplies Scarce

LITTLE improvement in business is reported in the general list of oil seeds, oil, fats and greases, though consumers are still disposed to adhere to their prices and to a conservative course in making purchases. The hardening tendency in the price of some of the products is making business more difficult inasmuch as the buyers abroad are showing no inclination to improve their quotation. For instance, from Tls. 7.60 sesamum seeds have gone up to Tls. 8 per picul, whereas European consumers are only offering their old rate of £23 per ton c.i.f. London or Rotterdam. The sterling equivalent of Tls. 8 per picul works out to £25 per ton. It is, therefore, hardly surprising that trade in this commodity at the present moment should be stagnant.

The local market for sesamum seeds has gone up because sellers are scarce, supplies in the hands of the dealers small and arrivals limited. Whatever quantities come into Shanghai from the producing centers are diverted against contracts concluded previously and are shipped immediately to Europe. Another reason for the steady local appreciation in the price of sesamum seeds is the fact that since the opening of the season considerable quantities of this product had been sold by Hankow and Shanghai, with the result that holders are not keen on letting their cargo go at old rates.

There does not seem to be any likelihood of an immediate decline in the rate in view of the supplies still required to fulfil the contracts concluded with buyers previously. Even Hankow, which is nearer the producing centers, has not been able to put through any trade in this commodity, there being too wide a disparity between buyers' and sellers' quotations. The market there is about the same as it is in Shanghai.

GENERAL MARKET DULL

Inquiries and orders for moderate quantities of various products are received in an increased volume, and with the tendency of most commodities for export being firmer and higher, the general market is characterised by a dull tone. Offerings are generally light and business is on a conservative scale. Changes in exchange rates are slight and are not helping the trade materially at the moment.

There is a small difference between what Japanese buyers are offering and what the Chinese holders are demanding in rapeseeds. Japanese consumers have increased their buying rate to yen 9.40 per picul for rapeseeds, but the active buying in the Shanghai market of this commodity on the part of speculators has sent the local rate up to Tls. 6.20 per picul, equivalent to yen 9.60 per picul.

The position is aggravated by the small arrivals from the interior, and with stocks locally standing at a low figure the tendency for the quotation to soar is facilitated. Although no trade in rapeseeds for export to Japan was reported during the past week, it is very likely that if a sufficiently large supply is offered the buyers will accept the ruling quotation in Shanghai. There is nothing doing in rapeseed oil, although a very small quantity is changing hands for local consumption.

PEANUT QUOTATIONS

All chances of doing business in peanuts is killed by the difference in the buying offers of London and the selling rates demanded by the Chinese dealers. Stocks in Shanghai are almost nil, while arrivals are small. There is a constant consignment of the product to Shanghai, but these consignments are destined for shipment to Canton, Swatow, etc; therefore, their effect on the local market is nil. The rate is firm at Tls. 8 per picul, while London buyers are only offering £21.5 per ton c.i.f. London or Tls. 7 per picul.

Even Tsingtao which in previous weeks had been able to consumate some of the orders, reports "nothing doing" owing to the big difference between the two quotations. At Tsingtao peanuts could be obtained at yen 9 per picul or £21.15 per ton c.i.f. Europe, a difference of fully ten shillings, this price being the rock bottom that Chinese dealers in Tsingtao are prepared to go. The Shanghai rate is higher than that prevailing in Tsingtao and works out to £23 per ton c.i.f. London.

In peanuts for edible use the demand that was expected from the United States has not set in. Peanut oil is quiet and steady, with offerings light. No new business is reported. Although the Cantonese merchants are no longer prominent buyers, the oil crushing mills are not desirous of selling owing to the price for peanuts being very firm. Selling

Smiles from the Mixed Court

BY J. L. BUTTS

As a tailor Zien Ching-sung finds other outlet for the original ideas which most of his fraternity succeed in incorporating in a suit of clothes—creating just as much trouble for himself, however, in his own way.

Zien, it seems, though claiming the needle as his weapon, is only a tailor when opportunity sneaks up and throws a noose about him. Recently he went to the establishment of Hoo Pau-ding, who trafficks in cloths, and confided that he had a contract for a swell tweed coat for a foreign resident of these Settlements. Not having the cloth himself, he asked Hoo to furnish some of the superior quality of goods for which he, Zien, knew the Hoo establishment to be justly famous. Zien was to build the garment. Hoo weighed the proposition with extreme deliberation and finally said that, while he knew perfectly well that Zien was telling the truth, he would like to go and see if the foreigner has actually ordered a coat. Zien said that would be perfectly all right with him, and led the way to a foreign residence, in front of which he paused with considerable effect and requested his companion to regard the place and contemplate the prospect of money to be made. He requested Hoo to await outside. He, Zien, would go to the foreigner and obtain indubitable proof of the commission.

Zien disappeared in the direction of the servants' entrance and presently emerged with a triumphant smile and a slip of paper, which latter he thrust into Hoo's hand. There, said he, this document, in the foreigner's own characters, set forth the terms of the transaction in positive style and Hoo would kindly observe that the price settled was far, far in excess of the materials needed. Hoo looked at the paper, observing the markings thereon from several angles and, having no acquaintance with foreign caligrophy, found nothing to controvert the prospectus. So he allowed Zien to escort him volubly back to the shop, where he measured out $18 worth of the stuff specified. Zien received the cloth and folding up the paper aforementioned presented it with a large-hearted smile to the shopkeeper, telling him that he might retain it as a symbol of good faith. Zien thereupon disappeared and his whereabouts and activities became nebulous and obscure and an ever-enlarging anxiety settled upon Hoo Pau-ding. Finally the worry became too great and the merchant turned in a report to the police.

It appears that the police had already developed an interest in Zien owing to the fact that shortly after his deal with Hoo he had gone to a friend's house on Peking Road while the friend was absent, and had borrowed a suit of clothes which he promised to return next day. But Zien evidently has a poor mind for dates.

Shortly after Hoo's complaint a detective reeled in a clew which had Zien at the end of it, and he appeared in the Mixed Court with a plaintive explanation for each accusation.

As regarded the cloth-for-the-coat transaction, he said, there really was a foreigner who wanted a coat made of the material ordered. If the foreigner had suddenly taken it into his head to move away from Shanghai, was that the witness' fault? Anyway, the man was coming back to Shanghai bye and bye and in the meantime, Zien said, he had pawned the goods for $16. He hoped to be able to reclaim the material by the time the foreigner wanted the coat.

As to the borrowed outfit, he really had intended it as a loan—but a creditor had appeared and demanded payment of an account outstanding. So he had been

Concluding Arguments In Kearny Case Will Be Heard Next Week

Court Officials And Attorneys Will Leave For Peking Tomorrow To Take Deposition Of Admiral Tu In Arms Case

After an interesting series of events before Judge Charles S. Lobingier in the United States Court for China yesterday afternoon it was decided to hear the final arguments in both cases in which Captain L. D. Kearny is charged with importing arms and munitions of war into China some day next week. The exact date next week will depend on the return from Peking of the deposition to be taken from Admiral Tu, Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese Navy.

Mr. C. S. Franklin, attorney for Captain Kearny, Mr. R. T. Peyton-Griffin, official court reporter, and United States District Attorney Leonard G. Husar, or a representative, will leave for Peking tomorrow. They expect to take Admiral Tu's deposition on Saturday and will return to Shanghai immediately. Both counsel for the prosecution and defense are ready to proceed with their final argument as soon as they return and Judge Lobingier can set a date.

The question was threshed out yesterday when District Attorney Husar made a motion that a definite date be set for taking of the deposition of Admiral Tu and of Civil Governor Chang of Chekiang and Magistrate Hu of Hangchow.

WASTE OF TIME

Mr. Husar asked that an early date be set because he asserted that the cases had now dragged along for over two weeks after all the evidence except the depositions had been taken. Mr. Husar admitted that Admiral Tu would very probably gladly give a deposition but said that he predicted that Civil Governor Chang would never make a deposition. It was merely a waste of time to allow the matter to drag on, he said, and asked that the arguments be set for today.

In lieu of the depositions Mr. Husar made a proposal to the defense to admit a letter from Admiral Tu dealing with the case if the defense would agree to the admission of a letter from Governor Chang in the second case. Mr. Franklin, for the defense, attempted to introduce Admiral Tu's letter in the first case but was over ruled by Judge Lobingier upon objection by Mr. Husar. The letter supposedly set forth that Captain Kearny was an advisor to Admiral Tu.

GIVE AND TAKE

Mr. Husar said that inasmuch as the defense had been so eager to have the letter from the Admiral admitted in the first case he would agree to its introduction if they would agree to the introduction of a similar letter from Governor Chang in the second case. The letter from Governor Chang supposedly disavows any connection with Captain Kearny.

Mr. Franklin declined to enter into any agreement that would admit the letter from Governor Chang, insisting upon the taking of the depositions despite the fact that Mr. Walter Chen, Admiral Tu's legal advisor, informed the court that Admiral Tu's deposition would cover no more than his letter on the same subject. Admiral Tu, Mr. Chen said, was considering accepting a post in the new Cabinet under President Tsao Kun and would be in Peking for some time.

BONDSMEN WITHDRAW

Mr. Husar created a slight sensation in the court room when after Mr. Franklin's refusal to enter into a stipulation with him concerning the letters, he said that two of Captain Kearny's bondsmen, Mr. S. Libby and Mr. L. R. Ferroggiaro, had appeared in his office just before the session began and requested that their names be withdrawn as bondsmen for Captain Kearny.

Each of the bondsmen was on the bond for G.$2,000, he said, and they asked that their bond be cancelled immediately. Mr. Husar said that in view of that circumstance, and the fact that he had received information from a reliable source that Captain Kearny was merely waiting for money from certain Chinese officials before departing for Japan, he would ask that he be taken into custody pending the signing of a new bond.

Mr. Franklin protested having his client go to jail on the grounds that there was another bond in another case for G.$2,000 that would be sufficient to hold him. Judge Lobingier finally ruled that the bonds on which Captain Kearny is now at liberty would remain in force until today noon. Captain Kearny must have two bonds for G.$2,000 each signed before Mr. W. A. Chapman, Clerk of the Court, by today noon, however, to remain at liberty.

The civil case involving the bankruptcy of The Kearny Company, was also on the calendar yesterday afternoon. Mr. F. J. Schuhl, on behalf of Mr. L. F. Roth, who has a judgment against the company for salary, joined in with The China Press, Inc. and The Koster Company, Inc. in asking that a receiver for the company be appointed. As most of the work concerning book-keeping Mr. Schuhl suggested that the firm of Haskin & Sells be appointed the official receivers. Judge Lobingier took the matter under advisement.

Senator Moses' report has caused considerable anxiety in the ranks of the President's supporters.

The cooperation of federal and state authorities in the enforcement of the law was arranged at the conference.

Arms Dealer Given Three Months At Hard Labor

George Dixon, a salesman, was sentenced to three months imprisonment at hard labor and ordered to pay a fine of £20 by Magistrate G. W. King in the British Police Court yesterday when he was found guilty of dealing in arms and munitions of war contrary to the King's Regulations. If he fails to pay the fine he must serve a further three months in jail.

His wife, Mrs. Emilie Dixon, was found not guilty on the same charge and discharged.

Mr. E. Maitland, prosecuting for the police, said that the police had received information that the accused was dealing in arms and had sent a Chinese detective to keep in touch with them. After several visits, he said, the detective was able to purchase a number of revolvers and some ammunition from them for $500. Both were forthwith arrested. A box of cartridges had been found in the woman's pocket, he said, and two revolvers were found in the room.

Detective Sergeant Knight testified that he had warned the accused following their arrest but that Dixon had admitted his guilt, saying, however, he was merely a small cog in the machine. His wife, he said, had nothing to do with the business.

THE WOMAN

Sergeant Champion, the next witness, testified that he had arrested Mrs. Dixon and that he had found a box of ammunition in one of her pockets. He did not see Dixon drop anything as he testified he had.

Constable Hancock testified that he had arrived as Dixon was struggling in the arms of two Chinese police and had been present when he was searched and arms and ammunition discovered.

THE DEAL

The Chinese policeman who purchased the arms testified that he had met Dixon outside a club at 111 North Szechuen Road which was now closed. In a conversation he made a deal with Dixon, he said, to furnish him 20 or 30 revolvers at $55 each with 100 rounds of ammunition. The actual deal, he continued, was consumated at 155 North Szechuen Road. The arms were put in a drawer and five packages of ammunition on a table, he said. The actual price paid was $50 for each revolver.

Other police witnesses gave similar testimony.

In reply to questions by the Magistrate Dixon said he had no excuse to offer. It was the first time he had ever been in trouble, he said, and as he was out of work and out of money he took the chance. His wife, he said, had nothing to do with the deal.

Mr. Maitland contended that Mrs. Dixon was implicated, whereupon Magistrate King reminded him of the famous Captain Peel case in which although the wife was present at the time a check was altered it was held that she had acted under his coercion.

THE SENTENCE

In passing sentence Magistrate King remarked that since the accused had no defense to offer he must find him guilty and sentence him to three months at hard labor. He had already given his views of Britishers dealing in arms in China, he said, and they need not be repeated. In addition to the prison sentence, he said, Dixon would be fined £20. If he did not pay it he must serve a further three months.

The law of coercion was in favor of Mrs. Dixon, he said, and she would therefore be allowed to go free.

Application for approximately $500 found on the two accused to be confiscated by the police was refused but the revolvers and ammunition were ordered confiscated.

Workers' Victory In Germany Soon Seen By Trotsky

(Reuter's Service)

Moscow, Oct. 22.—M. Trotsky, in a vigorous speech reviewing international affairs, expressed the opinion that the general situation in Germany was favorable to a victory of the workers who do not require active help. Analysing the probable attitude of the Powers he declared that Britain was only powerful overseas and that France would not be able to occupy the whole of Germany though the bourgeoisie were capable of acts of madness. Poland had the choice of being a Russo-German barrier on the bridge. M. Trotsky declared that Russia's reconstruction needed peace but if war were forced upon her she was confident of victory.

Von Kahr Denies Plan For Separation From Reich

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 22.—According to a telegram from a French source in Mayence, the Rhineland Republican movement is spreading. Separatists yesterday evening took possession of the town of Gross-Gerau where the police joined the separatists. A Republic was also proclaimed at Russelsheim and Starkenburg. The police at the latter place were disarmed.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 21.—A Rhenish Republic was proclaimed at four this morning at Aix-la-Chapelle. All public buildings were occupied by separatists. The Rhenish flag was hoisted at the Town Hall. The German police did not offer resistance. The Republicans have issued a proclamation forbidding resistance.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 21.—M. Hannecart, the Chief of the Belgian delegation in the Ruhr, today reported to M. Jaspar on the negotiations with the German industrialists. The Otto Wolff group has signed an agreement for the free delivery of coal as reparations. The Stinnes group will continue negotiations tomorrow. The Harpener group, representing about a score of mines, has requested negotiations. The workers' groups and the German industrialists are approaching agreement on the subject of lengthening the working day, in which the allies will not participate. Up to yesterday 60,000 railwaymen have asked to resume work. The requests have been examined and agreed to in accordance with possibility and necessity.

Paris, Oct. 21.—A bomb was laid last night at the door of the French Consul's residence at Liege. It was afterwards thrown into the square and exploded. There were no casualties.

Paris, Oct. 21.—Security Police at Essen yesterday dispersed bands of looters. Two persons were injured. Bands of unemployed in the Bischofsheim district have been requisitioning cattle.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 21.—A proclamation has been issued by the Provisional Government at Aix-la-Chapelle forbidding demonstrations, all resistance, and all looting, advising the population to remain calm and promising food supplies and work. The Rhineland troops will now move towards the north of the Belgian zone and probably towards the British zone.

The Brussels Cabinet today deliberated on the proclamation of the Rhineland Republic and instructed the Belgian occupation authorities to show prudence, to follow events with great reserve and to intervene only in case of disturbance of order.

The proclamation of the Rhineland Republic of Aix-la-Chapelle was signed by Herren Deckers and von Grunbach who are not affiliated with any known group of Separatists.

The Temps says that the Belgian High Commissioner arrived at Aix-la-Chapelle and immediately took the necessary measures in case of disturbance of order. He informed the initiators of the movement that he intended to remain neutral and, finding himself confronted by a fait accompli, held them responsible for public order.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 21.—In spite of grave differences both the Reich and the Bavarian Governments claim to be actuated by the same desire, namely, the strengthening of Germandom. At the same time they accuse the other side of disruptive influences.

Reuter's correspondent at Munich states that Dr. von Kahr in a statement to pressmen insisted that Bavaria rejected all idea of separation. Its action was purely directed against the policy of the Reich Government and not against the Reich. He declared that its attitude was dictated by opposition to Internationalism and Marxism.

Reuter's Berlin correspondent on the other hand, states that an Imperial Government manifesto describes the latter claim as wilful misrepresentation. It says that the Bavarian appointment of General von Lossow is an open breach of the Constitution of the Empire.

Generalissimo von Seeckt, in an order to the Reichswehr, warns the Seventh Bavarian Division to remain loyal to their oath to the Reich and unconditionally to obey their highest military commander.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 21.—The proclamation of a Rhenish Republic at Aix-la-Chapelle is not taken very tragically in official quarters here where it is regarded purely as a local outburst, not likely to spread to other parts of the occupied territory. It is reported that the armed separatists carrying out the coup numbered some 2,000.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 21.—The French official attitude towards the Rhineland coup is one of cautious reserve. It is not yet clear whether the merchant, Herr Deckers who is head of the movement at Aix-la-Chapelle, is acting in accord with the principal separatist leaders. It is the opinion here that if unity of view prevails among the separatist leaders, the movement may well spread throughout the Rhineland in the present state of high tension. It is officially declared that the French will not intervene unless required to protect the lives and property of Allied nationals or nationals working for the Allies.

(Reuter's Service)

Brussels, Oct. 21.—It is stated that the Government has instructed the Belgian military authorities to observe the strictest neutrality with regard to the separatist coup interfering only in case of disorder and for the protection of life.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 20.—General Mueller has notified the Saxon Premier, Herr Zeigner, that he has been instructed to use the troops at his disposal to restore order in Saxony. He expresses the hope that he will receive the support of the Saxon Government in that connection.

General Mueller today issued a proclamation declaring his intention to put down terrorism, threatening the death penalty on anybody forcibly opposing his measures.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 20.—A communique announces the dismissal of General von Lossow and the provisional substitution of General von Kressenstein to whom President Ebert has requested the Bavarian Government to make proposals with regard to the appointment of a Commander of the Bavarian Reichswehr.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 20.—It is reported from Munich that the Bavarian Government has issued a proclamation stating that, in the interests of public peace and pending restoration of normal relations with the Imperial Government, General von Lossow has been reinstated as Commandant of the Bavarian Reichswehr.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 20.—Internally and externally, Dr. Stresemann's Government is between the devil and the deep sea. On the one hand Saxony is threatening open revolt unless Bavaria is brought to heel and Bavaria, which is already practically independent, is making similar threats unless Red Saxony is suppressed. On the other hand M. Poincare's brusque negative to all the German suggestions for a solution of the Ruhr question has been a heavy blow to the Government and has caused even the Radicals to despair of the possibility of an agreement with France.

"Woe to the tyrant, France! The curses of the starving people be on her head," says Dr. Stresemann's organ, which laments that Britain has forgotten her international obligations.

The Bavarian General von Lossow, whom Herr Gessler, the Minister of Defence, in September appointed Military Commissioner of Bavaria to circumvent Dr. von Kahr's dictatorship, has now refused to execute Herr Gessler's orders to seize the offices of the newspaper the Voelkischer Beobachter, and at the same time telegraphed to General von Seeckt that he would refuse to obey any order which would bring him into conflict with the Bavarian Government.

General von Seeckt replied that General von Lossow no longer enjoyed his confidence. This General von Lossow ignored, whereupon Herr Gessler went to Augsburg and instructed the Bavarian General von Kressenstein to proceed to Munich to induce General von Lossow to resign. General von Lossow refused but General von Kressenstein resigned. The Bavarian Government has now informed Berlin that it refuses to have further official relations with Herr Gessler.

(Reuter's Service)

Mayence, Oct. 22.—Separatists entered the town this morning but were fired on and withdrew to the outskirts. Two persons were wounded.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 22.—The newspapers emphasise the necessity of France not intervening in the Rhineland separatist developments, though they declare that Berlin will not be allowed to make reprisals.

The Echo de Paris declares that the British zone must be closely watched on account of the existence at Cologne of the centre of anti-French propaganda.

Gov. Wood Lauded By Congressman

(Exclusive China Press)

Seattle, Oct. 21.—Congressman Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, arrived here on the President McKinley from an extensive tour of the Orient.

Congressman Ackerman said that the disturbances in the Philippines and particularly the outcry against Governor-General Wood which has resulted in the Philippine legislature passing a resolution demanding his recall, was purely for a political motive.

Many of the Filipino politicians who are taking the lead in demanding independence and the removal of General Wood are merely making a political gesture, Congressman Ackerman asserted. They do not want immediate independence, he said, but desire a little more authority and reason that by asking for everything they will get a little more than they have at the present time.

General Wood, the Congressman said, was giving the islands a most able administration and was not the least rattled by the clamor being raised against him.

"General Wood must receive the unswerving support of the government in the stand he has taken," Congressman Ackerman concluded.

Congressman Ackerman, following his visit to the Philippines where he made a first-hand survey of conditions, paid a brief visit to Shanghai. While he was here he was the guest of Mr. J. Harold Dollar and the American Chamber of Commerce. As a result of the conferences he had here it is expected that he will show a keen interest in bills to be placed before the next session of Congress that particularly effect American interests and American business in China.

Congressman and Mrs. Ackerman went to Japan from Shanghai and were there during the earthquake. Considerable anxiety was felt for them for several days until messages came through that they were safe in one of the summer resorts near Yokohama.

Chow Tse-chi, Former Premier, Dies At Peking

(Special To The China Press)

Peking, Oct. 21.—Mr. Chow Tse-chi, ex-premier of China, passed away in his home here this afternoon at 5 o'clock. His end was quite expected as physicians had pronounced his condition incurable after he had lost the sight of both eyes some weeks ago following a lingering illness.

He is survived by Madame Chow and a daughter, Amy, whose wedding to Mr. K. P. Hu, manager of the Chi Hsin Cement Works in Tangshan, took place the day before his death. The ceremony was originally planned for today at the Na Ch'a Garden, Peking, but on account of the approaching end of the aged premier, it was hurriedly performed in the Chow residence on the night previous. Mr. Wang Koh-ming, former Minister of Finance and a lifelong friend of the deceased, officiated before a large gathering of friends of the couple. Mr. Hu is a graduate of M. I. T. and was formally connected with Messrs. Lam, Glines and Co. Inc. of Shanghai.

EDUCATED IN U. S.

Premier Chow was born in Laihsien, Shantung, in 1860. After successfully passing the second series of literary examinations, he paved his way for a thorough foreign education at the Tung Wen College, Shanghai. With the first batch of students for the United States, he left China and entered Columbian University, Washington, D. C. where he graduated with honors.

From 1896 to 1899, Mr. Chow served as secretary of the Chinese Legation in Washington and the following year saw him acting as Consul-General in New York. Between 1901 and 1902, he was charge D'Affaires at Havana, Cuba. In 1903, he went to San Francisco to become the Chinese Consul-General there.

From 1904 on, for five years, Mr. Chow acted as First Secretary of the Chinese Legation in Washington. Then he returned to China to serve as Junior Secretary of the Board of Foreign Affairs in Peking. In 1909, he was promoted and became Senior Secretary of the Board, and later in the year, he became Acting Senior Councillor. When President Roosevelt returned a portion of the Boxer Indemnity for Educational purpose, Mr. Chow was appointed the first director of the Chinese Educational Mission to the United States. In August of this year, he was transferred to Prince Tsai Hsun's Naval mission to Japan and America. In 1911, he accompanied Prince Chen on the latter's mission to England to participate in the coronation of King George V and went back to his office on the Board of Foreign Affairs after the mission.

GIVEN CABINET POST

Upon the establishment of the Republic, Mr. Chow was appointed Vice-minister of Finance by Yuan Shih-k'ai and in the following year, he became acting Minister of Finance. The reorganisation of the cabinet sent Mr. Chow to Shantung in this year where he was made Military Governor. But for his experience in finance, he was appointed in August, 1913, Acting Governor of the Bank of China and in September as Minister of Communications. While serving as Minister of Finance in 1914, he became concurrently Minister of War. The following year saw Mr. Chow yet in another role, being given the Agriculture and Commerce portfolio by Li Yuan-hung.

In 1919, he was director-general of the Bureau of Currency. After the Anfu-Chihli war, Mr. Chow returned to his office in the Ministry of Finance, in which capacity he recalled all the depreciated notes of the Banks of China and of Communications from the market by the issuance of the Ninth Year of the Republic Short Term Domestic Loan. The issue was for $60,000,000 with the surplus customs revenue as security.

During the Washington Conference, Mr. Chow was attached to the Chinese Delegation as its High Advisor. While in the States, he lectured extensively and his intimacy with the New York bankers drew no little rumor of a huge loan for the Peking Government, which the general populace at that time opposed bitterly. It was then that Mr. Chow organised the Peacock Film Company, of which he was president.

HEAD OF NATION

After the conference, Mr. Chow became premier under Hsu Shih-chang; and when the latter fled from Peking upon the demand of Wu Pei-fu after the Chihli-Fengtien fight, Chow became the nominal Chief Executive of the nation by virtue of his office which he held but for a few days until the arrival of Li Yuan-hung from Tientsin.

In politics, Mr. Chow is affiliated with the Chihtung clique, but his act in sealing, as Premier of the Republic, the Mandates ordering the arrest and punishment of his close friends and political colleagues like Liang Shih-yi and Yeh Kung-cho drew a great deal of unfavorable criticism from all cliques after the Chihli-Fengtien War.

Early this year he made a trip to South China. While there it was rumored that he made up with his former friends of the Chihtung clique, Liang and Yeh. He became ill while returning to the North, from which illness he never recovered.

Union Of Radicals Planned In France

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Radical Socialist Party which, notwithstanding the lack of homogeneity, constitutes the main opposition of the Government, has concluded its annual Congress with a program aiming at uniting all sections. The program steers a course between the Communists and the supporters of the Government. It supports the League of Nations, maintenance of friendship with the Allies, rapprochement with Russia and helping German Democracy provided the latter helps the Allies to obtain reparations. The program expresses luke-warmth towards the occupation of the Ruhr but deprecates any act which German capitalism might construe as anti-French. Nevertheless, it threatens to intervene if the Government rejects reasonable German proposals.

KUOMINGTANG M.P.'S ASSAIL SUN YAT-SEN

Urge Canton Leader To Give Up Opposition To President

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 22.—The Peking Daily News states that the Kuomintang Members of Parliament have wired to Dr. Sun Yat-sen advising him to give up his opposition to the present Government.

The telegram says: "Last year, when the Constitutional Government was restored, you urged us to come North. Last June, when the situation in Peking was critical, you advised us not to change the seat of Parliament as the Canton wars were not ended. We could not understand why you should have refused to recognise General Li Yuan-hung as the legitimate President and why you established an independent Government at Canton.

"If you regarded General Li Yuan-hung as an idiot, why should you have urged us to work with him? Since June the country has been in imminent danger and you and we were in an equally helpless position. We were forced to elect a clearer-headed man as President for the salvation of the large part of the country. We have hastened the completion of the Constitution, which is intended for the safety of the nation. This gives an opportunity for effecting the unification of the nation. Therefore, we are surprised that you, acting on misinformation, have ordered the arrest of the Kuomintang Members of Parliament in Peking. Even President Yuan Shi-kai would not have committed such a blunder.

"You urged us to come to Peking and asked us not to change the seat of Parliament. In these circumstances it was our duty to elect a President. Besides Tsao Kun, who else is there in China at this time who can claim a larger sphere of control? We hope you will observe the Constitution and yield to the Central Government and no longer deceive the world. We cannot afford to sacrifice the welfare of the country for the interests of you and the province of Kwangtung."

The telegram was signed by 34 Kuomintang Members of Parliament.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 22.—Although it has been insistently reported that the post of Inspector-General of Chihli, Shantung and Honan will be abolished, a semi-official report today states that it will be offered to General Wu Pei-fu, the Vice-Inspectorates being abolished. Militarist circles, however, suggest the appointment of General Wu as Inspector-General of Hunan, Hupeh and Honan, and the appointment of General Wang Chen-ping to a similar post in Shantung, Chihli, and possibly, Shansi. With reference to the latter, it seems that there will undoubtedly be another movement towards ousting Governor Yen from the "model province".

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Oct. 22.—Cantonese laborers and students today held a demonstration and distributed handbills declaring that they would not recognise Marshal Tsao Kun as President or the further existence of Parliament; charging American and British interests of supporting the Peking regime, and suggesting a boycott.

Confirmation is still lacking of the news of the fall of Waichow. Dr. Sun Yat-sen is proposing to establish special headquarters at the Bocca Tigis forts.

The Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association has closed and the delegates are departing to their homes.

The Laughing Lady

Alfred Sutro has had a lapse! His latest play is the limit! There is a bit of the divorce scene about it! Then it is followed by a temptation scene! The participants are the erring lady and the counsel for the defense! It is a tangle! The whole story is not moral-welfare-like. I didn't like the play a little bit. I confess that it was brim full of witty lines but it didn't save the dialogue as a whole.

I am surprised at a man like Alfred Sutro writing a play like, "The Laughing Lady." I am even more surprised to hear that Miss Lohr was able to put it over with a London audience. If that clever little lady worked the stunt, then "hats off" to Miss Niqua Lewis who played the same part here, and got away with it to an audience who gave as much encouragement as a tiny mouse would give to a hungry cat.

Honestly folk, "The Laughing Lady" is pretty poor stuff. There was only one thing to it last night. Miss Lewis worked like an artiste—she is an artiste—but it called for something supreme to rouse enthusiasm in a crowd like we got last night. I simply hate to roast a show; but I didn't like "The Laughing Lady." Now that wasn't the Co's fault. Miss Lewis was good. Miss Enid Sass was also good. The other ladies were nearly good. The men were not good, I mean of course, in the theatrical sense. One good lad, with a Charles Hawtrey make-up, appeared with a full dress suit and a pair of pink socks—but I've finished.

That "Laughing Lady" must get going and out Sutro-Sutro if she wants to get the show over. All the players certainly have my best wishes.

OPIUM TAXES AT BOTTOM OF HUNAN WARFARE

(China Press Correspondence)

Changsha, Oct. 15.—The whole trouble in Hunan is nothing more than that the various Generals are trying to get hold of the taxes levied on opium which passes through western Hunan to the Yangtsze under military escort. It does seem a scandal that the Fowers do not say that they must not transport any opium and this would reduce the taxes and not cause so much envy because the general in command at Changteh was making a fortune by sticking to all opium taxes.

This fighting has been going on now for a month and a half and will continue. They say that two brigades of Wu Pei-fu's Northern soldiers are due tomorrow afternoon and that Tan Yin Kai who is Dr. Sun Yat-sen's nominee is getting the support of General Lu Ti-ping at Hsiangtan after two months of so called benevolent neutrality. Young China is nothing more than a farce and the sooner they get the old style of Chinese officials in again the better for China. Hunan has enough coal to supply the whole of China and today we are unable to get enough for our kitchen fires.

Wider Franchise Planned In Japan

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 20.—(Delayed) The special commission of five Ministers, appointed by the Premier to consider questions affecting universal suffrage, has decided to report to the cabinet in favor of removing property restrictions.

All persons over twentyfive years of age with a six months' residence qualification will be enfranchised. The foregoing decision is likely to be embodied in the Government Suffrage Bill, which will be submitted to the next regular session of the Diet. The Bill, if presented, will be supported by the Kenseikai, the leading Opposition party, according to a decision of a general meeting of the party.

Smiles From The Mixed Court

forced to pawn that lot also. He hoped to rectify this tangle also.

The Court was obviously sympathetic, but the best it could do was two months on each charge. Zien's grief, however, didn't strike bottom with this. A representative of the French police appeared and informed the Court that the prisoner was wanted in the French Concession on a charge strangely similar to those on which he had just been convicted. So the Magistrate sent Zien over to the French Mixed Court for a session, after which he will be returned to serve his time here. Then to Frenchtown—mayhap—and then to suburbia.

Asks That Old Suit In Court Be Dismissed

Mr. Walter Chalaire, representing Anderson, Meyer and Company, yesterday made a motion before Judge Charles S. Lobingier in the U. S. Court to dismiss the case of North v. Anderson, Meyer & Company for lack of prosecution. Mr. Chalaire submitted that the case was filed on July 1, 1922, had never been prosecuted and that the plaintiff was now in France, had no intention of returning to Shanghai, and was not represented legally. Judge Lobingier took the matter under advisement.

A FINE TRIBUTE To Life Insurance

From the Bank of Manhattan Company, New York City, comes the following recommendation of Life Insurance:

"The life insurance family is founded upon changeless and permanent moral and mathematical laws and sound economics, which is a sure guarantee of complete security and protection to every member.

"The spirit of this family is the fairest and finest in the world. It is a blend of faith, love, loyalty, integrity, intelligence and duty. The family exists for service to others. It is always building and never tearing down. It constructs and conserves. It never destroys. It makes death the servant of life. It is the enemy of disease and poverty and fear. It prolongs the protection of fatherhood and insures the safety of motherhood and childhood.

"It stabilizes business, strengthens good government, cultivates thrift, encourages enterprise, stimulates progress, and insures prosperity. In a word, it stands for our definition of progress: The growing participation of more and more people in more and more of the good things of life."

GRANT BRINGS AMERICAN MAIL THIS AFTERNOON

Another Mail Comes On President Pierce Tomorrow

Bringing a heavy mail from the United States, the President Grant will arrive in Shanghai from Seattle early this afternoon, and is to dock at the China Merchants Central Wharf around one o'clock. The liner has on board 1,500 bags of American mail, a full list of passengers and 3,800 tons of cargo for Shanghai, and will sail for Hongkong and Manila at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Another mail from the States is due on the President Pierce tomorrow. The vessel which comes from San Francisco via Honolulu and Japan ports, will dock about noon tomorrow, and is bringing passengers and freight as well as mail for this port.

The next mail for America will be dispatched on the Empress of Asia, for Vancouver, and the President Cleveland, for San Francisco, via Honolulu as well as Japan ports, next Saturday, and the President Jefferson is sailing for Seattle the day following.

With the arrival of the P. and O. boat Caledonia from London this morning, the next mail from Europe will arrive on the steamers Porthos and Nyanza this week-end, and taking mail for Europe, the M.M. liner Angers is to leave Shanghai for Marseilles next Friday morning.

Winter-garden Has New American Chef

In order to take advantage of his downtown location to serve those who want first class meals, Manager Brown, of the Wintergarden, has engaged an American chef, and from now on, Mr. Brown says, the Wintergarden cuisine will be second to none in Shanghai.

The new chef, Mr. J. D. McMahon, comes to the Wintergarden from the Davenport Hotel, of Spokane, Washington, conceded to be the finest hotel in the Northwest, and one that is particularly noted for its dining room service. Previous to that he was chef at the Elks cafe in Wenatchee, Washington.

The new Wintergarden chef will specialise in Italian, French and American dishes, and promises Wintergarden patrons something entirely new and different in the food line.

Seeds And Oil

offers are difficult to be had from them.

Soya beans are firm the Dairen rate being round yen 5.40 per picul. There is a good inquiry from Europe but contracts have not been successful. There is a good inquiry as well for crude soya bean oil, and Dairen reports sales of about 20 tanks, mainly for nearby arrival to America, on the basis of 8½ to 8¾ gold cents per pound c.i.f. Pacific Coast and 9¼ to 9½ gold cents per pound New York.

Offerings from Dairen are light, and the opinion is expressed that an effect of the Japanese disaster is likely to be a shortage of shipping space and a delay in exports to America. There are still sufficient stocks in San Francisco of soya bean oil to take care of all requirements, and no oil has been exported to that place for some weeks. The market in San Francisco is still nominally 6¼ gold cents per pound off Pacific Coast. Small lots of barrelled oil are selling in San Francisco at 9¾ gold cents to 10 gold cents per pound, duty paid.

The large quantities of soya bean oil in Rotterdam, the new arrivals of oil in Antwerp direct from Shanghai and Dairen, the numerous offers and continually declining prices of this oil, have caused consumers in Belgium to substitute soya bean oil for other oils, whenever possible. Large quantities of soya bean oil have been distined to the margarin industry in Holland and Belgium, but the small margin between prices of butter and margarin has caused a falling off in the consumption of the latter. An average of 80 to 100 tons of soya bean oil per day, it is stated was imported into Belgium during June. Soya bean oil is weak in Antwerp and large spot stocks in Rotterdam have been offered to Belgian buyers.

Golfers Fare Badly In Qualifying Round Of Club Championship At Kiangwan

Only Three Rounds Under Eighty; J. B. Ferrier Leads With 159 For Two Rounds; First Round Next Sunday

There was a lot of golf at Kiangwan Sunday, and most of it was bad. The occasion was the qualifying round for the championship of the Shanghai golf club, and while all the conditions were perfect for low scoring the cards turned in were very disappointing. Even J. B. Ferrier, the club champion, who on such a day should have had no difficulty in breaking seventy, or even sixty, barely managed to get under eighty, and then in only one of his two rounds. In his first trip around the course "J. B." had to be content with an even eighty, and an eighty to a player of his class, is about as satisfying as soda pop to a toper.

Other players of class, notably J. L. Crompton, H. R. Malcolm, A. Gray and "Willie" Lancaster, spent the whole day breasting a tide of fives and sixes when they should have gone along swimmingly down stream with threes and fours. Mr. Gray turned in a 76 for his afternoon round, and that was the best effort of the day. Mr. Malcolm got a 78 on his second round, making a total of three "seventy" cards for the day; surely not a good showing.

Just why the scores ran so high is something of a mystery. The weather was perfect and the course in prime shape for low scoring. The fairways were hard and smooth, the rough not very terrifying, and the greens, with few exceptions, fast and true. All a straight hitter needed yesterday was a driver, a mashie and a putter—implements that in the hands of a Hagen or a Havers would have shot par fuller of holes than a sieve.

And yet, fifteen of the eighteen qualifying cards were in the eighties, and half of the fifteen were in the middle eighties at that. It must have been a case of everybody saying to himself: "Well, here it is, a perfect day for golf; watch me knock Colonel Bogey galley west!"

And that was the trouble, apparently. If the players had been content to go along easily the scoring would have been better.

While all of those who qualified were looked upon before the preliminary test as probables there were others who were considered to have an equally good chance. Messrs. Pettitt, Hopkins, Bolton, Chassells, Bowerman, Porter, Lane and West, in recent rounds did much better than they did yesterday and they were counted upon to make the battle a close one. As it turned out, however, they were all back in the ruck when the cards were all in.

The qualifiers were:

J. B. Ferrier	80	79=159
A. Gray	84	76=160
H. R. Malcolm	82	78=160
E. Lester Arnold	82	81=163
K. M. Cumming	84	80=164
W. O. Lancaster	84	80=164
J. L. Crompton	85	81=166
H. G. Elliot	84	84=168*
C. Richards	82	86=168*

*Tie

The draw for the first round, to be played next Sunday, follows:

Ferrier v. Arnold.
Cumming v. Crompton.
Lancaster v. Richards or Elliot.
Malcolm v. Gray.

Other scores were:

T. R. Chassels 171; A. V. Pettitt 174; W. Mansel (Smith 174; C. H. Hopkins 174; A. C. Godby 174; Dr. N. Hay Bolton 175; A. West 175; A. F. Wheen 176; T. J. Fisher 176; A. W. McPhail 178; J. H. Sandes 178; F. Ferrier 179; O. H. Blackburn 179; C. E. M. Thomson 179; R. J. Bowerman 180; W. Huggett 181; C. W. Porter 181; H. B. Lane 186; H. E. Brewer 187.

The tie between Richards and Elliot will be played this week.

BIG DEMAND FOR TICKETS TO BOXING SHOW

Great Interest Manifested In Carlton's Program For Friday

The advance sale of tickets for the all-star boxing show that is to be staged in the ballroom of the New Carlton on Friday night started with a rush yesterday, with the result that the promoters are now satisfied that the show will be a great success. The men back of the enterprise, encouraged by the response already shown, are now considering the possibility of a weekly or bi-weekly boxing card at the New Carlton. They feel convinced that boxing, under proper auspices, will prove tremendously popular in Shanghai and for that reason they are taking extraordinary pains to make sure that the initial program is carried out without a hitch.

Particular pains will be taken to avoid all objectionable features. To this end the match making has been arranged with an eye to having boxers of approximately equal skill face each other. This will preclude the possibility of the show taking on the aspect of a slaughter house.

The tickets were printed yesterday and will be on sale today. All the clubs and hotels report a heavy demand, and as many of the pasteboards already spoken for are in pairs the indications are that many women will be present when the boxers go into action Friday.

Billy Tingle and Sailor Chadwick, headliners for the show, are training hard for the contest and while both boys are already in tiptop condition they are taking no chances, each knowing that he has a hard battle on hand.

The silver trophies that are to be presented are on view at the Carlton, and drew much favorable comment from the Carlton patrons.

Great Gridiron Battles Saturday

October 27 is going to be a pretty good football date. On that day Yale plays Brown, Harvard plays Dartmouth, Princeton plays Navy, Pennsylvania plays Center, Pittsburgh plays Carnegie Tech, Penn State plays West Virginia, Notre Dame plays Georgia Tech, Iowa plays Ohio State, Illinois plays Northwestern, Wisconsin plays Minnesota and California plays Washington State.

And the following Saturday is a corker. Then Yale and the Army, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, Penn State and Syracuse, Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson, Cornell and Dartmouth, the Navy and Colgate, Chicago and Illinois and Iowa and Michigan meet.

Irish Victors In Game With England

(Reuter's Service)

Belfast, Oct. 20.—Ireland beat England by two goals to one.

The match was played in fine weather. There were 25,000 spectators.

The play was very fast. England were mostly attacking in the early stages, but the Irish defence was excellent. After a quarter of an hour Bradford scored for England from a center by Hegan. Soon afterwards Gillespie equalised. The game continued to be splendidly contested until the interval, when the score still stood at 1 goal to 1. The second half was most exciting. Both goals had very narrow escaped. Croft put the ball into the net for Ireland from a corner after a quarter of an hour. England fought desperately but failed to equalise.

NOTRE DAME GRID ELEVEN DEFEATS PRINCETON, 25-2

(Exclusive China Press)

New York, Oct. 21.—Several startling upsets were recorded in the big games in American football yesterday.

One of the most surprising games was the defeat of Princeton by Notre Dame by a score of 25 to 2. The fighting Catholics from the Middle West showed their superiority at all times and the Tigers were lucky in escaping a goose-egg.

West Point had an easy time with Auburn, winning by 28 to 6, but Yale had to buckle down to dispose of Bucknell by a 29 to 14 score.

Pennsylvania threw another monkey-wrench into the usual Army-Navy superiority with the pigskin by defeating the Navy 21 to 3 with ease.

Zev Beats Papyrus; Heavy Track Hurts Invader's Chance

(Exclusive China Press)

New York, Oct. 21.—Zev, by winning G.$80,000 as the winners share of the purse in the international race, has placed himself at the top of the list of American winning horses. Zev's total winnings to date amount to G.$254,536, which eclipses the winnings of Man-o'-War by G.$5,471.

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 20.—The American colt, Zev, beat Papyrus in the race for the International Gold Cup.

The race took place in brilliant weather before 70,000 people, the greatest crowd that has ever witnessed a horse-race in America. The track was good. Off was given at 3.55 p.m. At the start Papyrus led by a length, but seemed almost to stop, Zev going to the front as they passed the paddock. Papyrus reduced the American's lead at the half-mile, but Zev regained a length lead during the next quarter-mile, retaining it at the mile. Papyrus, driven hard by Donoghue, failed to get up, and Zev, running under restraint, steadily increased his advantage, winning by six lengths amid a great roar from the crowd.

The time was 2 mins. 35 2-5 secs. The betting was 5 to 4 on Zev and evens on Papyrus.

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 20.—It is believed that the defeat of Papyrus was due to his being unable to run on a sloppy track. He was shod smoothly while Zev was shod with steel-caulks. Steve Donoghue says that Papyrus was not at home in going. This is confirmed by Mr. Jarvis, the trainer, though neither advances it as an excuse.

Nanyang College Defeats Sailors

Before a crowd of about 1,000 spectators the speedy Nanyang football team defeated the Navy Boys by 3 clear goals on the Nanyang grounds yesterday afternoon. Owing to the heat and insufficient training, both teams were more or less played out most of the time but the Nanyang team showed up faster than their hefty opponents and won the game by utilising every opportunity offered them. Mr. A. H. Lewis refereed the game to the satisfaction of all.

FLAMES WRECK FLOUR MILL IN KWANGFOH ROAD

Spread Of Outbreak Checked After Desperate Battle

Fire, which broke out early yesterday morning in the Yuen Foong Flour mill, 77 Kwangfoh Road, Chapei, completely destroyed the mill and its contents and was kept from spreading to adjacent buildings only after a stiff battle in which both the Chapei department and Sinza division of the Settlement Fire Brigade participated. The amount of damage is not known as yet, but it is known that it will run to a considerable figure.

The fire was first reported to Sinza division by Sinza watch tower at 2.44 a.m., the flames being noticed in the neighborhood of Markham Road bridge. On arrival at the scene, the firemen found that the blaze was just across the creek on the Chapei side and that the Chapei brigade had already arrived.

The mill, in which the flames originated, was already a furnace. The Chapei department requested aid, and Sinza began pumping water from the creek. The interior of the building was constructed of wood, however, and shortly after the firemen arrived the floors and roof collapsed.

All efforts were then directed towards preventing the spread of the flames to two godowns twenty feet west and southeast of the burning building, one of which was connected with it by a passageway. The godowns were covered with streams of water, as was a pile of lumber stored in the yard of the mill.

Because sparks were being carried by the wind, a machine was stationed on the Settlement side of the creek at the corner of Connaught and Markham Roads in readiness to check any spread on that side.

After an hour, the fire in the mill was brought under control, and although the mill was gutted, all danger to the godowns and lumber was checked.

Sinza division responded to another alarm at 5 p.m., when it was called to Avenue Road. At No. 1214, in an alleyway off Avenue Road, a Chinese House was found in flames. When the firemen arrived, the first floor and roof of the house at 1214 was well alight and the flames had spread to a Chinese house at No. 1213. The fire was soon brought under control, however, and completely extinguished in 20 minutes, with damage confined to the roof and first floor of the house at 1214 and the contents of the first floor of the house at 1213. The cause is unknown.

SERVICE TONIGHT FOR SEAFARERS AT CATHEDRAL

Sailors And Local Officials Will Gather For Program Here

A special church service for those who "go down to the sea in ships," similar to that held every year in St. Paul's, London, will be held this evening at Holy Trinity Cathedral. The service, which follows upon Trafalgar Day, the anniversary of Nelson's famous victory, is one which is held in all the big cities of the British Empire today and it is hoped to make it an annual event here as well.

Members of the Consular Body, officers and men of the Royal Navy and of the merchant service, members of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps and representatives as well of the Royal Yacht Squadron, will be in attendance at this evening's service.

The service will be fully choral, the program and those officiating being as follows:

Preacher, the Rev. A. F. Hamilton, R.N., H.M.S. Ambrose.

Lessons: Commander Watkins, D.S.C., R.N.; Captain P. H. Rolfe, Commander, R.N.R.

Anthem: "Behold God is Great," Naylor.

Organ Recital at 8:45, (preceding the service) Chirale in A minor, Cesar Francke; "Evening Song," Bairstow.

The fact that the Royal Yacht Squadron is to be represented at the service tonight is due to the arrival of the Santone II, yacht of the Hon. Mr. Guiness and party, who are touring the world. At the service the Captain of the yacht, other officers and men will be in attendance.

The Santone II arriving here from Tientsin and after its party had visited Northern points, has been visiting all the southern islands of the Pacific. The Hon. Mr. Guiness is one of the famous Irish family, while in the party are Miss Tenant, a half-sis Lady Margot Asquith, Dr. Phillips and others of note.

Children's Party On October 30

A children's Hallowe'en party will be given at the Columbia Country Club on the afternoon of October 30 from 4 until 7:30 o'clock, according to announcement made yesterday. The affair will be a fancy dress party and all the little sheba's and shieks in the Settlement are said to be pestering their mother's to death with what they'll wear.

Jascha Heifetz

Heifetz started his third concert in Shanghai at the Town Hall last night with Grieg's Sonata in C. minor. Together with his excellent accompanist Isidor Achron, he gave the sonata in the true style of chamber music so that everybody felt from the first moment that the music was in good hands. Sound musicianship, finish of phrasing and a warm beautiful tone were evidenced in this principal number.

In the Rondeau Capriccioso he conquered the technical difficulties in a manner more perfect, it is safe to say, than anyone in Shanghai has ever heard.

In the second part of the program also, Heifetz gave the enthusiastic audience masterpieces of thoroughly finished violin playing. Every number of this program was rendered with great fullness of tone—a real charm to the ear—and sparkling technique. Heifetz is a real personality of the violin, and no wonder that the demands of the audience forced him to many encores.

It is impossible to say what numbers excel, but the two Paganini pieces and Chopin's "Nocturne" may be remembered while his rendition of Elgar's "Capricieuse" drew such a storm of applause that he was forced to repeat it.

Heifetz is playing. It can be once more enjoyed on Wednesday night, when he is giving his farewell concert in Shanghai, on which occasion, Bach's Giaconne certainly will be on the program.

Japan Issues Report On Slaying Of Koreans

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 20.—The ban hitherto imposed on reports of massacres of Koreans in the early days of confusion and interrupted communications after the earthquake, has now been lifted. It was originally imposed owing to grossly exaggerated rumors which travelled rapidly of outrages alleged to have been perpetrated by Koreans.

It is now reported that deaths of Koreans at the hands of vigilantes and others exceeded 500 in the affected areas and the adjoining districts with the exception of Tokio where the number has not yet been given out. The police at Yokohama succeeded in affording protection to a large number of Koreans by transferring them to ships in the harbor. Large numbers of perpetrators of these massacres are under arrest and are being examined by the police.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 22.—While it is admitted that a considerable number of innocent Koreans and others mistaken for Koreans were massacred, official reports on the events of those days, published this morning, assert that certain Koreans, individualy or in parties of ten to thirty, were responsible for looting, incendiarism and other outrages, thereby affording a basis for alarms and rumors, which lost nothing in re-telling and greatly accentuated the terrors of the calamity, leading to acts of violence by the self-constituted defence bands.

CALIFORNIAN MADE HEAD OF WAR VETERANS

John R. Quinn Elected National Commander Of American Legion

(Exclusive China Press)

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—John R. Quinn, of Delano, Calif., today was elected National Commander of the American Legion.

The selection of Quinn as the head of the veteran's organization was reached only on the eleventh ballot and after a keen contest for the honor.

The new Commander was born near Porterville, Calif., in 1889, and served as a Captain in the American Expeditionary Forces during the world war.

St. Paul was selected as the city in which the sixth annual convention will be held next year, and it was recommended that Paris, France, be the convention city in 1928.

Resolutions mildly denouncing the Ku Klux Klan were adopted by the convention after a bitter fight, although the Klan is not mentioned by name. The Resolutions Committee also asked the convention to endorse the occupation of the Ruhr and urged the continuance of friendly relations between America and the Allies. The stimulation of the development of plans for permanent peace also was urged upon the assemblage.

Hair Falling? Germol Stops It

Try the Remarkable New Hair-Root Nourisher. Notice Difference in a Few Days.

After combing your hair, do you find your comb full of dead and broken off hairs? How long do you suppose this can keep up before you become entirely bald? There is no excuse for this condition, now that the newly discovered hair nourisher, GERMOL, will positively end hair falling within a very short time. GERMOL gives remarkable vigor to the hair roots, where the source of the trouble lies. Every hair is held tightly in its root sac, and your hair stops falling. You can prove this in a short time. GERMOL also stops scalp itching and the condition which results in dandruff. It gives youthful vigor to hair-roots and brings back to the hair its lustrous original color. Your hair will be silky, full of life, luxurious. You need nothing else but GERMOL to give yourself a luxuriant growth of healthy hair. It produces results even in those of advanced years where the hair is grey and thin. Start using it today and solve your hair problem for all time to come. One bottle will prove it.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

October 22, 1923

Spot bar silver was unchanged and forward up ⅛d. in London on Saturday. The New York price is unchanged and the London-New York cross rate declined to 450⅞.

The only changed in our official quotations here today were a drop in the Gold Dollar rate to 68½ and a rise in the Franc rate to 1165. Our market here today at the opening was firm and became quite strong in the course of the day.

In the early part of the morning some business in Sterling was done at 3s. 1d. for October delivery and 3s. 0⅞d. for January. Gold Dollars were done at the some time at 69⅝ for near and forward deliveries and Yen at 70⅛.

Banks, however, were very good sellers at these rates and the market became very firm indeed in the afternoon, closing with sellers of Sterling at 3s. 1¼d. October delivery, 3s. 1⅛d. November and 3s. 1⅛d. December.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 70 for near and forward deliveries and sellers of Yen at 69¾. Banks were quoting 3s. 1¾d., 71½ and 1225 for Sterling, Gold Dollar and Franc bills respectively.

India bought silver in London on Saturday and the market there is reported as closing steady. New York report their market as firm.

WEATHER

The depression of Mongolia will approach Northern China. Southerly breezes to the North of the 30th parallel; variable winds in the South. Weather probably fine.

The Service Of The League

BEFORE attacking the League of Nations as a failure because of the flouting of it by Italy the attackers should have hesitated, and then held their peace. But the League was a tempting target, with the Italians in Corfu.

"Italy is in possession and the League cannot force her out" the attackers shouted. "To coerce a nation means to use force. You don't coerce people by soft words or calm logic or resounding oratory. Coercion means the use of force—brute force, physical force, armed force," in that vein Chairman Adams of the Republican National Committee ruthlessly exposed the futility of the League, reaching finally the conclusion that "America is right to stay in the League in order to furnish the armed force—military or naval, or both—and the money to finance such operations."

The Italian government has now evacuated Corfu and at the instance of the League has reversed the policy previously taken by Mussolini.

No "brute force, physical force, armed force," has been used to bring the headiest ruler in Europe to his senses. True it is that the council of ambassadors has been directly instrumental in persuading Mussolini to modify his ultimatum and to evacuate Corfu, the American enemies of the League naturally point to this fact as proving the League's importance. But there is another phase of the incident that no fairminded person will ignore. The council and the assembly of the League, were instrumental in bringing world opinion to bear upon the Italian government and it was the sentiment of the civilized world that even Mussolini shrank from defying. Without that manifestation of world sentiment to sustain it the council of ambassadors, cooperating with the League, must have found its task immensely more difficult.

If Italy was coerced, it has been not by brute force but by moral force. The League is still admittedly feeble as an international agency for the maintenance of peace; yet in the present case its influence has been far from negligible in "promoting international cooperation and achieving international peace and security," to quote what is the first of the objects of the League as specified in its covenant.

Freaks Of Nature

MOZAMBIQUE MANTID

Being too slow of movement to catch insects by fair methods, the Mozambique mantid resorts to strategy to get its meals. To do this, the wily creature assumes a double disguise. Its legs are green like the grass, and the upper part of its body is colored purple and white to resemble a flower. As a bee or butterfly approaches, the mantid crouches down and the victim alights upon the supposed flower to gather nectar. It soon discovers the deception, for the mantid instantly crushes it with its powerful claws.

My father had just been shot by the Emperor's orders.
Do you remember how I called you my ape
And you kicked me in the porcelain pants
With the august end of your jade loot?
Now you are a thousand miles up the river
And are in for twenty years
Not counting the three moons off each year
For august behavior.
I wish I had died of canned-salmon poisoning.
Would you be sorry?

The Ningpo City Pagoda

Written for The China Press
By Tadpole Tauchin Wang
(Ningpo Senior Middle School)

Within the South Gate of the city of Ningpo, not far from the Old City Temple, lies the Ningpo City Pagoda, the most famous one in Chekiang. The Ningponese calls it the "T'ien-Feng Pagoda." Many tourists, coming from different parts of China, and foreigners, who chance to come to Ningpo, pay their visit to the Pagoda.

The history of the Pagoda is interesting, according to the Ningpo Magazine. The Magazine says that more then 1290 years before the Republic, in the T'ang Dynasty, between the years of T'ien-T'ung and Teng-Feng, the Pagoda was built. At that time, it was called "Seng-Chia Pagoda." (A Sanskrit for Buddha). The present name is derived from T'ien-Tung and Teng-Feng. During the reign of Kao-Tsung of Sung Dynasty, (785 years before the Republic) it was destroyed by soldiers.

A few years later, it was rebuilt. The total expenditure amounted to 91,000,000 copper-coins. Indeed it was a beautiful architecture with smooth and specially made tiles. The rails were all made of red coral. But about 600 years ago, in the reign of King T'ai-Ting of Yuan Dynasty, it fell down to pieces. During the first year of the reign of Wen-Tsung, it was rebuilt. The expenditure amounted to 300,000 strings of coins. (A string contains one thousand copper coins.) More than 300,000 catties of copper and iron, 400,000 pieces of bricks, and 300,000 tiles were used. Lumbers and limes were hardly counted.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

In the tenth year of the reign of Ch'eng-Tsu, (509 years before the Republic) the upper three stories were destroyed by a lightning-stroke. In the same years, it was repaired. In the thirty-sixth year of Shih-Tsung, in the same Dynasty, the top of the Pagoda was torn down by typhoon. ed. In the Ch'ing Dynasty, it was repaired during the reigns of Shun-Ch'ih, Yung-Cheng, and Ch'ien-Lung. In the second year of Chia-Ch'ing, (117 years before the Republic) all rails were burned by the fall of the Pagoda-lamp. The Ningpo Magazine fails to tell about the Pagoda further, so the writer cannot get any detailed history of the Pagoda.

FOURTEEN STORIES

The original Pagoda had fourteen stories. But today, there are only thirteen. It is six-cornered. The six stories of even numbers are dark with no openings. The third, fifth, seventh, ninth, eleventh, and thirteen stories are all bright with six apertures each. The first story has a door but without windows. Each aperture has a rail made of wood. The wall is about six feet in breadth. Each story can hold more than forty persons. It is 180 feet high.

The first story has five idols. Two Idols are at side and the other two, the right side. The middle one is the Image of Pluto. Before each idol, a candle-stick is put. Before Pluto, a wooden money-box was placed. Every person, who visits there should cast at least two coppers as incense-money. Above is hanging a vegetable-oil lamp which is lighted every day and night. The top of the upper story is pointed. There was no covering but a moon-like opening.

THE MONASTERY

The Pagoda is under the auspice of T'ien-feng Monastery, which lies beside it. The monastery was built in the Han Dynasty (2117 years before Republic). In the present time, there are just repairing their Buddha Hall. The Monastery has employed a man to keep the Pagoda. The man is seventy-one years of age, and a native of Ningpo. In this conversation with the writer, he said. "This is the most miserable occupation in the world. A cloudy day, or a windy day is the most silent part of my life, because there will be no tourists coming here. Fortunately, I am an old man. A young man surely cannot do this business, even for one day, because three-hundred sixty-five days means three-hundred-sixty-five-day sittings. At the end of the month, the monastery pays him $1 as salary. Breakfast, dinner and supper are all supplied by the said Monastery. At night, he sleeps in the Monastery. The door of the Pagoda is thus shut.

Some Ningpo men said that men or women who become weary of their lives will go to the top hanging themselves. For this, there are many malice-devils in the Pagoda. So, every day on July, each aperture is lighted with a paper lantern in order to drive the devils away. On a special day, several monks from the Monastery will go there to hold a service for the devils. Thus devils from within or without will soon escape away. On September 30, the birthday of Pluto, candles are lighted; idols are gold-plated; and dust cleared. Many women pay their pilgrimage to the idols. It will be a very good night.

TEETHING TIME NEED NOT MEAN TEARS

When baby's teeth are coming through is a time of worry to many mothers.

The little one's gums become swollen and tender; he is cross; does not sleep well; is troubled with convulsions colic or diarrhoea, and sometimes even convulsions seize him. During this period nothing can equal the use of Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy. They regulate the bowels and stomach, and make the teething so easy that the mother scarcely realizes baby is getting his teeth.

These Tablets are equally healthful and harmless to the youngest infant and the child of six or more, curing constipation, indigestion colic, diarrhoea, croup, colds, simple fever and expelling worms. Chemists sell them, or post free, 60 cents the vial from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

THE B. W. A. FAYRE

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS:

Dear Sir.—It has come to our knowledge that people are asking to what object the proceeds of the British Women's Association "Old English Fayre" are to be put. Also that there is some feeling that on account of the earthquake in Japan, the Fayre should have been postponed.

We should like briefly to answer these two questions. Firstly, the proceeds from the "Fayre" are to go towards an endowment fund for Headquarters and a B.W.A. Residence, where it is hoped in time to come, that members who are earning their own living, may be able to live and thereby enjoy the benefits of a residence run by their own Association.

It has long been felt that the B.W.A. needs more adequate quarters, and to that end a Christmas Fair was held in the Autumn of 1921. The proceeds from that are on deposit in the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and the Association is desirous of adding to this "nest egg," so that our Associations' future may be on a lasting footing.

Secondly, at the time of the earthquake, Mrs. H. G. Simms presided over a meeting at which the idea of postponing the "Fayre" was thoroughly gone into. Outside advice was taken from several leading men in Shanghai, and their opinion was that as the arrangements had gone so far, it would not be just to the many helpers to put off the "Fayre."

Perishable goods are being sent from Great Britain, Australia, and Canada, and these things would not have kept until the Spring, and thereby would have been a total loss. Further the Stewards of the Race Club have very kindly and not without inconvenience to themselves, lent the necessary buildings for the "Fayre." This, however kind the Stewards might have been, might well be impossible for them in the Spring.

The B.W.A. has helped and is still helping the earthquake refugees, and we feel that that work has not been unappreciated by the public. Therefore we feel we are justified in their eyes in going on with our "Fayre."

I am, etc.,
Catherine F. Green.

EXTRACT FROM EXPERT REPORT:

"Having visited most of the cement factories of Great Britain, America and Europe, I am in a position to form an opinion of the relative merits and faults of each.....but my experiences lead me to the conclusion that 'pride of place' must unquestionably be given to the Holderbank Factory in Switzerland .....In design and construction it is a model without rival in any country." W. H. Brown, A. M. I. Mech. E., leading authority in England on cement manufacturing.

The Wisdom of the ancient Sage and the technical experiences of a modern authority on cement manufacturing have guided us to instal a set of machinery in our Lungwha Works which is an exact model of the one used by the Holderbank factory, Switzerland, and supplied by the original patentees with numerous latest improvements. The cement we are now supplying our customers is the product of that "perfect instrument."

What Women Wear

To the quite connoisseur this new fad for wearing jackets and hats made from old French quilts is sheer madness. It is nothing short of desecration. It would be like hacking up the frieze of the Parthenon or pulling down the gargoyles on Notre Dame to make paper weights or door stops to sell at a gift shop. The only hope of the quilt fancier is that they really are not quite what they are cracked up to be—and that the quilts from which these little hat and jacket sets are made are not really and truly old, old quilts taken from attics in France. It would be more tolerable to think that they had been made to order, these quilts—and had been antiquated over night to meet the demand for quilted jackets that has sprung up here and in France.

If you are not a quilt fancier, the chances are that you can view these jackets, believing them to be fashioned from quilts as old and quaint as they appear to be, withiut a sign of regret. Doubtless real good has been done to poor folk in France by this demand for old quilts. For at the price asked for jacket and hat a rather pretty penny must be paid for the quilts—or at least a penny that looks pretty to the possessor of the quilts.

The sketch shows how they are made. The set sketched is of orange and red calico lined and trimmed with solid red. By careful manipulation a number of sets can be made from a good-sized quilt.

Earlier in the season you know, the fashion started in France for sets including hats and gilets made from old pieces of chintz and printed linen and the marvel then was how so many pieces of this very old fabric—toile de Jouey, it was called—could at once be available.

This fad for these jackets of old quilting is in line with a rather widespread interest in the quilt maker's art as an inspiration to present-day dressmakers. Sometimes cuffs and collars are made from contrasting materials put together in the manner of the patchwork quilt and sometimes the trimming motif of a frock consists of applied designs quilted down in the manner known to old-time quilters.

The whole subject of old quilts is worth noting—and if you have no other hobby, that of collecting quilts and studying quilting patterns is worth while. Sometimes plain white quilts were wrought in beautiful and intricate design simply by the work of countless stitching. And in the patchwork quilts and applique quilts exquisite old designs were handed down for generations by industrious housewives.

Then, too, the colors and designs of the calicos and other cotton fabrics found in the quilts have beauty and quaintness that are enhanced by the mellowing of many years.

Jacket and hat to match, made of old French quilt of orange and red calico trimmed with solid red.

THE IDEAL WOMAN

Mr. George: I say, did you get a chance to talk to Mrs. Gretz last night?

Mrs. George: No, darling. You monopolised her.

Mr. George (unsuspicious): Did I? I'm sorry. I so much wanted you to talk to her. You see, it's not only that she's so good looking, but she's got magnetism. Why do you laugh? Jealous, I suppose (indignant), just because I happen to admire another woman ....

Mrs. George: Because other woman. It's one woman after the other, and ther're all perfect. Tell me, dear, what is your idea of an ideal woman?

Mr. George: You.

Mrs. George: Leave out the compliments and answer me.

Mr. George: Oh, its hard to say. I suppose the ideal woman is very good-looking, talks intelligently and listens when talked to. She'd be elegant but never flashy, modest but never forward. She would be alluring without trying to be so. Witty but never cruel, never witty at the expense of .... well, at the expense of the people.

Mrs. George: Never at your expense, is what you mean,

Mr. George: You're not being very ideal in that reply.

Mrs. George: Good gracious, why should I compete?

Mr. George: Why, indeed, since you've got me?

Mrs. George: Yes, darling, and I'm not going to let you go and so much the better for you. You'd find me very difficult to replace. I know perfectly well that I'm extravagant, bad tempered, selfish, unpunctual, vain, lazy, untruthful and dishonest. I know all that, but I also know exactly how you like your coffee. Did you notice how charming Mr. Gretz was?

Mr. George: No, I didn't. I had no chance to talk to him. You were sitting in his pocket all the evening.

:-: The Cabot Habit :-:

By Dr. Charles Fleischer

The tumult and the shouting over the famous-funny case of Cabot vs. Kabotchnick has died. But the end is not yet.

The one-time Harry Kabotchnick is now Henry Cabot, by permission of a Philadelphia court. The protest of those New England Cabots who, like inspired poets, are born and not made, has proved unavailing.

Other New England militant patriots will fight all the harder to maintain the monopoly of their traditional names.

By heck and by the sacred codfish, they will!

Despite the Philadelphia decision (secretly abetted by a silent, sympathetic tolling of the nearby Liberty Bell) the first families of New England do not intend to accept, without organised opposition, the invasion of "foreigners" who seek not only to become American in spirit, but easily to be pronounced American.

Let no Adamsky or Adamowski imagine he will be as easily allowed to acquire the name as to achieve the patriotism of a Samuel Adams or his descendants.

Nor let Paolo, who has migrated hither from the Italian Riviera, delude himself that his wish to be known as Paul Revere will not prompt Boston, Lexington and Concord to combine against him.

Who knows but that other than pre-Revolutionary monickers will tempt the patriotic ambitions of our newcomers?

As in the case of that Polish gardener, of utterly unpronounceable name, who was in the employ of a friend.

This compatriot of Sobieski sing "My Country, tis of Thee!"

and Kosciusko had married a Polish maiden, but had begotten children to whom he wanted to give a typically American name.

Being a resident of the [illegible] Boston, he appealed for the right to be known thereafter as Patrick Murphy.

By that same token, a Chinese living in the heart of New York's East Side might prove he had become fully acclimated by choosing Abe Cohen as his American title.

And, indeed, there is a well attested legend to the effect that a super-patriotic Jew, living in America's metropolis, exchanged his Yiddish "Yankele" for the more nearly Yankee-sounding John Kelly.

The Cabots and other similar pure, true-blue, ninety-nine and forty-four one-hundredths Americans might as well accept graciously and gladly the implied compliment of these newer Americans who have caught the Cabot habit.

And who want, like them, to sing "My Country, tis of Thee!"

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"Castoria is good for children and frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."

Moving Troops At Changchow

Chengchow, October 16.—Manoeuvering at the Chengchow railway juncture has been going on quite briskly recently, and the true purpose of the trooping is scarcely known. The officers of the 14th Division have commandeered about 250 freight and passenger cars on the Peking-Hankow line, and will use them for troops movement.

Reports from Hsuchow state that bandit forces of Lao Yang-jen crossed the railway line recently, and their activities are far beyond the control of the troops. The lonely trail from Kwanyingtang to the prospering trade centers of Shansi Province is infested by bandits. Foreigners in Honan are very much afraid of traveling.

Carlton Theater

Beginning Wednesday night, Nazimova, in "Camille," a modernized version of the famed Dumas play, adapted by June Mathis, who made the continuity for Rex Ingram's two productions for Metro, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalpse" and "The Conquering Power." Nazimova plays the role made famous by such great actresses as Bernhardt, Eleanora Duse, Ciara Morris, Rejane, Modjeska, Laura Keene, Olga Nethersole and Ethel Barrymore.

The story is of Armand Duval the young Parisian law student, who loves Marguerite Gautier, called Camille, a notorious Parisian woman. Together they leave the city and decide to live for each other, he sacrificing his career and she abandoning her mode of life. The climax comes with Camille's leaving Armand so that he might continue his career and her death in neglect and poverty.

Ray C. Smallwood directed this Metro release, which Rudolph. J. Bergquist photographed. Natacha Rambova had charge of the art direction. Nazimova's supporting cast includes Rudolph Valentino, Edward Connelly, Red Cherryman, Arthur Hoyt, Zeffie Tilbury, Ruth Miller, Consuelo Flowerton, Mrs. Oliver and William Orlamond.

Take Deposition Of Soviet Envoy Now In Peking

The fad of taking depositions in important cases of other than American citizens, now prevalent in the United States Court received further impetus yesterday when Major C. P. Holcomb, acting for Mr. R. T. Evans of Tientsin, counsel for Max Wolfsohn & Company, asked leave to take the deposition of Mr. L. M. Karakan, Soviet Envoy to Peking. The Soviet Envoy's deposition is needed in the case in which the Russo-Asiatic Bank is suing Wolfsohn & Company. The deposition will be taken in Peking.

The Sunday Concert

Last Sunday's concert was dedicated to works of Northern composers and among them Edward Grieg who's second Peer Gynt suite excelled on the program. He still seems to remain the most original and gifted composer.

From Syendsen we heard the popular Romance for violin very well played by Mr. Foa and the first performance of the legende Zozahayda.

Sibelius is certainly a personality and his symphonic poem 'Finlandia' was one of the outstanding numbers full of passionate expression. In Halvorsen's suite in old style the orchestra had an opportunity to show its valuable virtuosity which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience fullsomely applauding M. Paci. The concert was concluded with a Rhapsody on Swedish folksongs by Alfven.
